PREFACE.

PREFACE.

This volume contains the National Numbers 30001 to 31000,—embers who entered the Society in 1900.

It is gratifying to me that the Lineage Book has become valu-ble as a work of reference to Genealogical and Historical Socie-es. My interest dates from the time when as Librarian General 1 1897, I aided and was closely associated with the work of the Historian General.

As volume followed volume, I have been glad to find an ever ncreasing number of members who trace their descent from sol-iers. We have been familiar with officers of the Revolution, but his is the first recognition of the rank and file. It is they whose eet were bare at Valley Forge, who went over the barricade at tony Point, who withstood the onset at Cowpens.
